

Youth—Update

SAINT PAUL SAINTS GAME SUNDAY, AUGUST 16

Twenty-one youth and adults attended the Saint Paul Saints vs the Lincoln Saltdogs at Midway Stadium on August 16, preceded by tailgating in the stadium parking. We filled up on great food (brats, hot dogs and burgers, chips, watermelon and brownies), played frisbee and took in some of the “Fun is Good!” events located around the entrance of the stadium.

We learned around noon that the previous night’s game had been rained out, so the last three innings of that game were finished first. The 1:05 p.m. game started around 3:00, and then only went seven innings. The Saint Paul Saints finally squeaked out two runs in the bottom of the seventh, losing 6-2 to the Saltdogs.

Definite highlights were seeing “Here’s a Shout Out to the Kids from Arlington Heights Presbyterian Church” appear on the marquee, plus we got a shout out from the announcer.

A special thanks to those who provided transportation/food: David and Kathy Carlson, Abbie Stone — and youth leaders, of course. Also, thanks to Clay and Betty Passick for going three hours early to stake-out that great shady spot, complete with two picnic tables, for tailgating and grilling. Awesome!

photos by Betty Brandt Passick

(above) Our youth and leaders pose with “Mudonna T. Pig” during the Saint Paul Saints game, which the Saints lost 6-2. (below-pig) The Saints 2009 pig mascot, “Slumhog Millionaire,” delivers baseballs to the umpire between innings, each time wearing new accessories.

Finally, thank you to those who continue to support (especially, your financial contributions) us to make special events, like this one, possible for our youth!

Michelle Cerame and Matt Moore, Youth Leaders

