

Multicultural Sunday, May 15

Photos by Betty Brandt Passick

Thank you to everyone for your participation in this celebration of our church's wonderful diversity!

Entaw So, Paw Htoo, and November Htoo (from Thailand) carried the cross and light.

Participant Leaders for Worship Service

Bulletin Cover
Art on loan from the studio of George Oyoo, Native Son of the Sudan

Planning Team: Maurine Mbu, Brenda Robertson, Jeannie MacArthur, Comfort Ndingwan, Bayongson Nde, Helen Curphey-Larson

Moments for Mission: Juliet Tah, Diane Albright

Speakers: Jeannie MacArthur, Nche Mou-Bayong, Diane Albright, Max Mbu

Song Leaders: Mercy Nche, Comfort Ndingwan, Comfort Ndiappi

Bulletin Cover: George Oyoo

Pianist: Donna Hampton-Maki

Drum Accompaniment: Che-nwi Mou-Bayong

Parament Display: Midge Beck

Jeannie MacArthur lead the call to worship in English; Diane Albright read it in Creole, the language of Haiti; Nche Mou-Bayong finished with reading it in Pidgin English, the language of Cameroon. Juliet Tah Provided insight into African worship.

Our African Community Choir sing a favorite song of celebration: "We Are Giving in the Light of God."

Passing of the Peace on this morning was to the song/lyrics: "Hold somebody, tell'em that 'I love you,' put your hands together, and praise the Lord,"

A Map showing our diversity.

