

Westminster Town Hall Forum Series

The Westminster Town Hall Forum engages the public in reflection and dialogue on the key issues of our day from an ethical perspective. Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox addressed the first forum thirty years ago, and since then, more than 200 distinguished speakers have explored issues in politics, public policy, journalism, arts, literature, religion, education, business, and more. Forums are held at noon on select Thursdays from September to May at Westminster Presbyterian Church in downtown Minneapolis.
